Visit Tucson Antique Gallery In Unique Lost Barrio Area

by Barb Stillman, Publisher

On a recent trip to Tucson, I was looking forward to visiting one of our newest advertisers—Tucson Antique Gallery. It is located in the Lost Barrio area, a unique neighborhood where old warehouses have been repurposed into high-end retail shops.

This upscale gallery reflects Owners Carl and Debbie Esparza's wide ranging-interests and passions. From art to antiques, collectibles, Mid-Century Modern, jewelry, furniture and so much more, you will find it all. Every piece has been chosen specifically for their shop since they do not have consignments.

Carl was in the shop and showed me around, explaining that he loves ethnic art—from Native American to African art and all that is in between. Many pieces were on display, most from local artists. Carl also shared the interesting path he and Debbie have taken, ultimately leading to their opening the Tucson Antique Gallery.

The Esparzas started in business in 1989 with an art gallery at St. Phillips Plaza. In 1993 they closed that gallery and broadened their business by adding antiques and high-end collectibles to the art. For more than twenty years they had been dealers in all of the Tucson malls with multiple booths until they finally decided it was time to open a retail business once again. They wanted to personally show their customers the pieces they have collected and love. It is easy to feel the enthusiasm they have for what they do.

Carl and Debbie were delighted to find a high-demand location for Tucson Antique Gallery, which they opened in September 2021.

15th Home Tour & Antique Show In Superior, January 28-29, 2023

The 15th Annual Superior Home Tour & Antique Show will take place on January 28th and 29th in the historic mining town of Superior. Hosted by the Superior Chamber of Commerce, the event offers ticket holders a chance to explore several unique homes in the historic community.

This year's tour includes "The Surprise House," a brick home built in the 1920s that has been fully restored. The home has retained much of its original character including the kitchen that features the original cabinets from a bygone era. The home is one of several in the area that housed the mine supervisors from Magma Copper Mine and were company owned until the 1970s.

The Antique Show will take place at the Magma Club, a beautifully restored 100+ year old building in downtown Superior. The building once hosted dinners, dancing and boxing matches for Magma Mine workers. Attendees can browse quality antiques or relax and listen to live music on the veranda while taking in the mountain views.

Both days begin with a pancake breakfast. Throughout the day, attendees can explore at their own pace while also taking part in guided hikes or listening to dynamic speakers. Attendees will hear stories of Superior's history and the legends who once roamed there—including Mattie Blaylock, Wyatt Earp's common-law wife, who is buried in the Pinal Cemetery just outside of town. This year's speakers include Wyatt Earp, a descendant of the western lawman. In addition, the Tour will feature handmade pottery for sale from the Mexican village of Mata Ortiz and a chance to browse the various shops in downtown Superior.

Tickets are $17 if purchased in advance. All ticket holders receive 2-for-1 tickets to the Renaissance Festival and Boyce Thompson Arboretum. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit www.superiorazhometour.com.

2023 Sunshine Regional Exhibit Items

The exhibit at the Arizona Sunshine Regional Watch and Clock Show is entirely composed of items from its member's personal collections. Here is some information about Novelty and Steampunk Clocks and Watches at the Show that are sure to be entertaining and of interest.

What is a Novelty Timepiece? Novelty clocks and watches combine the functionality of a familiar object and give it a new twist that may make you smile or at least appreciate the originality of their unique designs. Many are relatively inexpensive to buy, and they often have cheaply made mechanisms that make them poor timekeepers—some incorporate animated and musical features that appeal to customers' interests or sense of humor. Antique gold-plated pot metal clocks often mimicked more expensive bronze-cased French clocks of the time. Character watches and clocks have images of movie stars or cartoon figures like Mickey Mouse on their dials. Some clocks are overly complicated Rube Goldberg contraptions. Many are intriguing in their design and are fun to look at, which may outweigh their poor timekeeping ability. The category is very popular, which can be verified by a simple search on the Internet or Amazon.com.

What is a Steampunk Timepiece? Steampunk may be defined as "where history and fantasy collide with technology." Science fiction writer K. W. Jeter coined the term Steampunk in 1987 to describe his novel Morlock Night and the fantasy novels inspired by the writings of H. G. Wells and Jules Verne. Jeter's stories were set in Victorian times and celebrated the technology of the day, which was often powered by steam. Steampunk clocks and watches incorporate timekeeping mechanisms into industrial-looking fantasy-inspired case designs that may include non-functioning machine parts such as valves, dials, gauges, and levers. The steampunk genre remains popular and continues to influence fashion styles, movie themes, and video games.

Antique & Vintage Clothing Buttons Show & Sale in Avondale, Feb. 18 & 19

Many people have no idea that clothing buttons are avidly collected and that a large group of button lovers and collectors comes together every year in Arizona to buy, sell and compete with these fascinating fasteners. Sponsored by the Arizona State Button Society (ASBS), the Annual Convention attracts button enthusiasts and the curious from all over the state who will enter competitions, shop and trade and attend educational workshops.

The 2023 Button Show and Sale will be held on February 18th and 19th at the Hilton Garden Inn, 11460 W. Hilton Garden Way in Avondale. The theme is "Anchors Away" and hours are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Sunday. The non-profit group asks for a $5.00 donation at the door. Children are admitted free.

There are antique and vintage buttons that will appeal to almost everyone. Tiny treasures surviving the 18th Century, breathtaking Victorian picture buttons, miniature glass paperweight buttons, fine enamels and whimsical Bakelite are just some of the examples of the types of buttons that can be found and purchased at this show from the country's finest dealers.

Each year, ASBS members enter their competition trays of buttons just before the show. Each tray entered focuses on a specific material, era, size or topic, with judging taking place on Friday before the show.

After judging, all of the trays that were entered into competition are placed on racks for public viewing during the Show. The winners receive prize money and are awarded ribbons.

Button collecting first became an organized hobby in Chicago in 1938. The National Button Society was then formed and their first show was the following year in Chicago. Button collecting didn't come to the young state of Arizona until the 1970s and there has been an annual show in Arizona since 1973. This year the local clubs are celebrating their 50th Anniversary Show! ASBS is happy to have some original club members who will be attending the show as well as family members who have become members and also love collecting antique and vintage buttons aka Tiny Treasures!

Arizona has four active button collecting group clubs that meet monthly and are located in the West Valley, East Valley, Tucson and Prescott—all of which are associated with the ASBS. Membership dues are $20 per year ($2 for children) and include an emailed Bulletin three times a year with articles, photos, project topics, historical button research and more.

It's been a very positive move and traffic from neighboring shops has drawn many customers to them in addition to their own following. Since opening the shop over a year ago, they have had a very positive response from the community.

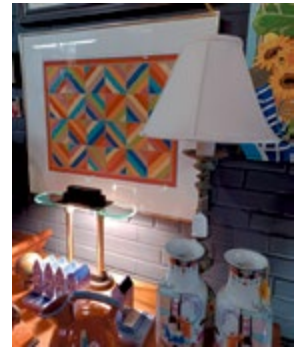

Carl told me, "The longer we are open in this location, the more I love it. I have met so many interesting and fun people who have become friends."

A well-known comedian/actor visiting friends in Tucson recently stopped by the shop. This man is very tall and was looking for a comfortable chair. After trying every chair, he found one that was comfortable and a good fit. He and his wife fell in love with the shop and he told Carl and Debbie that it had become his favorite of all shops.

With their many years of experience, the Esparzas are very knowledgeable about the merchandise that they carry and are happy to share not only the history and the backgrounds of the pieces, but why they personally love them. Their years of networking also include developing resources for referring customer to crafters who have the ability and talents to make intricate repairs on unique specialty items that require special skills.

It easy to see why the shop has grown in popularity. Carl and Debbie are helpful and show a personal interest in their customers, always ready to greet and assist each person and provide outstanding service. Great merchandise that will enhance any home and friendly customer service is a winning combination. While I was there, a customer commented to me, "There is something here for everyone."

and I really enjoyed watching the process and having fun with the other people who were attending. There are plans to add monthly Saturday auctions and I'm looking forward to checking out another auction soon.

In addition to the auctions, there are also plans to hold weekend "Pop-up" events featuring a variety of themes. Right next to Desert Mercantile is a space that is perfect for holding shows in a secure indoors location free of weather constraints.

When brother and sister team, Ray and Mary Bulot, were looking to rent space to sell their items, they visited all the antique malls in the Valley. They ran into a problem when all the malls were full and some even had year-long waiting lists. At first, they were discouraged but then decided to turn this into an opportunity by deciding to open an antique mall of their own.

After searching for the right location, they found an 18,000 square foot store space and started the process of securing a lease, obtaining the necessary city permits and license. They laid out a floor plan and even constructed individual booth spaces for Vendors. They felt there was a need and there were other dealers looking for space to sell their merchandise. And they were right. Desert Mercantile opened on August 20th and three months later nearly all of the 102 spaces and showcases were filled. A few are still available so contact Ray or Mary if you are interested.

The layout of the mall gives easy access to customers walking through the aisles and around each booth. Vendors sell a wide range of antiques, collectibles and vintage. Attractive displays include vintage and collectors' clothing, jewelry, signs, beautiful rocks, coins, artwork, western—just to name a few. They even have a small hardware section with new merchandise.

Ray explained why Desert Mercantile is unique, saying, "We are a non-traditional antique mall with additional services, such as a full live auction, a hardware store within the mall, U-Haul rentals and a FedEx shipping center. We want our customers to enjoy fun and welcoming buying experiences."

He continued, "The area we chose for the Mall has been an ideal place to have our business and be partners with a welcoming community. We have had a tremendous experience getting to know our customers and our goal is to provide great service to our customers and our community."

Desert Mercantile is located at 1836 W. Baseline Road in Mesa. The Mall is open daily from from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., Monday to Sunday. Learn more at: <https://www.facebook.com/desertmercantile>, email: arizonaantiquemall@gmail.com or call 602-487-9021.
