*From the Doll CornerDoll Collecting for Fun and Historical Preservation

Did you know that Doll Collecting remains in the top collecting interests today? Hollywood can make dolls spooky and creep us out with dolls, but they are still a “collecting passion” for many people young and old. Why is that?

Mary Senko, owner of World Doll Day Shows and Events tells us, “People want to collect items that have meaning and history, represent a special place or time remind them of a special person or are just beautiful and artful.” Dolls do a little of all of all of that and more....

What better place to learn about dolls and get a chance at some history than to attend a doll show and sale? Collectors have a chance to ask questions, meet a fabulous line-up of vendors, get a doll evaluated or just enjoy the FUN of a treasure hunt at the upcoming World Doll Day Show and Sale in Phoenix. Attendees can shop for over 50 dealers with nearly 100 tables of dolls from every era and see the toys and treasures that help bring doll displays to life in their own collections and add that piece of historical significance that makes a collection unique.

Attendees of World Doll Day Shows will find something for everyone including vintage dolls and toys; artist and one-of-a-kind dolls and plushies; doll house furniture and doll house accessories; contemporary dolls such as Barbie, Blythe, Monster High, Antique dolls, Madame Alexander dolls, Patty Play Pal and so much more. The Shrine Auditorium offers food with their restaurant and bar open to make stopping and grabbing a snack easy and convenient. The Hilton Garden Inn on VanBuren offers

Timeless Treasures in the Desert 2026 Arizona Sunshine Regional

For antique enthusiasts and history buffs, there is no better way to welcome the spring than by immersing oneself in the art of horology under the bright Arizona sky. This coming March, the Fountain Hills Community Center will transform into a bustling hub of mechanical history for the 2026 Arizona Sunshine Regional.

While many antique shows offer a little bit of everything, the Arizona Sunshine Regional is a specialized event that dives deep into the world of timekeeping. It is a premier destination for those seeking to discover rare American, European and Asian timepieces, or simply to marvel at the engineering of a bygone era.

The Thrill of the Hunt

At the heart of the event is the Mart—a sprawling marketplace that offers far more than the average swap meet. Here, rows of tables are laden with ticking treasures ranging from pristine 19th-century car-riage clocks and rugged railroad pocket watches to mid-century modern wall clocks. For the active collector or the amateur restorer, it is a goldmine of rare parts, vintage tools, and out-of-print books essential for keeping history alive.

A Study in Contrasts: The 2026 Exhibit

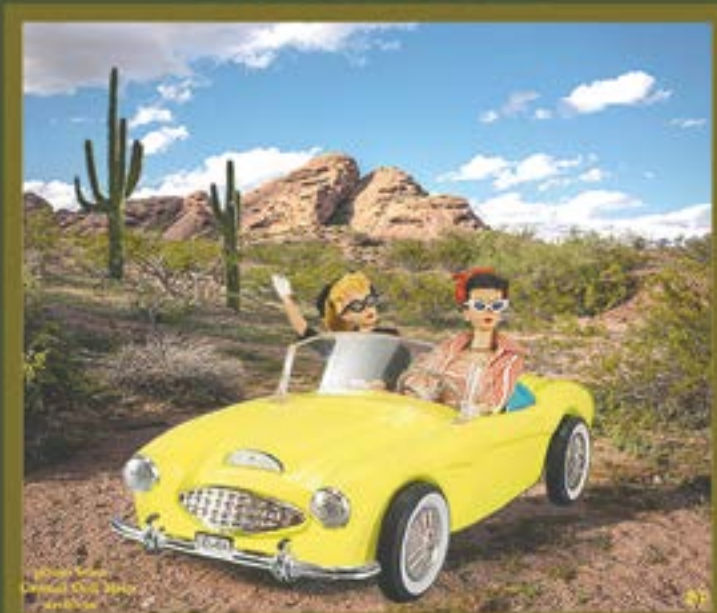

This year, the event features a particularly engaging educational exhibit titled “The Best & Worst Clocks in Members’ Collections.” Most antique exhibits focus solely on the masterpieces. This year, however, we are pulling back the curtain on the reality of collecting. Alongside the high-precision regulators and intricate French enamels, visitors will be treated

Our refreshments are well known, and be sure to get your discount ticket for the food truck; this year we will have horological videos playing. Take a break and learn at the same time.

Quick reminders: Make your hotel reservation early as this is high season. Your mart table must be staffed by 9:30am or it will be re-sold or folded down. The Phoenix Antiques, Bottles & Collectibles Club (PABCC) will be hosting their 43rd annual show on February 13th & 14th.

The big change for the 2026 show is a new venue located at the El Zaribah Shriners Auditorium, 552 N. 40th Street in Phoenix. This change also required a change in the dates of the show to an earlier weekend in February as well as new hours with early bird opening admission Friday from 12 to 2 p.m., general admission from 2 to 5 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. General admission is $5.00 and Early bird admission is $15.00.

There's just too much to list!

Saturday, February 14th is Valentine's Day so come to the show and bring a friend or sweetheart! You won't want to miss it!

The PABCC has approximately 45 members who meet 10 months out of the year on the 1st Wednesday of each month from 7 to 9 p.m. and visitors are welcome at the meetings. The meetings will feature guest speakers or club members giving a short 20-30 minute talk on their collection and Arizona history. Refreshments are served with time for mingling before a show & tell period and a raffle at the end. The location is Heritage Heights Clubhouse, 3030 E. Mission Lane, Phoenix, (32nd Street south of Route 51).

Fountain Hills Antiques & Jewelry Celebrating 20 Years!

Fountain Hills Antiques & Jewelry is celebrating their 20th anniversary. The Dimitrios family has grown this business from the ground up and has built a reputation in the antique world for their vast knowledge and expertise. Founded in 2005 by Eleni and her late husband, Dimitrios Vassiliades Sr., they based their business model on a simple idea that every piece has a story. Whether it's a hand-crafted gemstone necklace or a century-old heirloom, the store quickly became known for items that carried both beauty and meaning.

Dimitrios and Eleni Vassiliades were in the fine jewelry and objets d'art business in Chicago and Lake Forest, Illinois doing business as Dimitrios Jewelers for over 50 years. They decided to open another location as Dimitrios' "retirement." They bought the property located at their current location 13233 N. LaMontana Drive in Fountain Hills and built the 10,000 square foot building for the Fountain Hills Antiques & Jewelry.

Fountain Hills Antiques offers a wide variety of antiques to a display of the "lemons." These are the clocks that, despite their makers' best efforts, were mechanical failures or design oddities. It is a unique opportunity to compare the pinnacle of horological achievement with the quirky missteps of history.

Public Day & Vintage Valuations

On Saturday, March 14, the general public is invited to join in for a special open house. For just $5 at the door, you can explore the mart, view the exhibits and shop for your own treasures. Do you have a family heirloom gathering dust in the attic? Bring it along! Knowledgeable collectors will be on hand Saturday to examine your clocks and provide an estimate of value and historical background.

Event Details:

• Dates: March 13 & 14, 2026

• Location: Fountain Hills Community Center Exhibition Hall, 13001 N. La Montana Dr., Fountain Hills, AZ.

including furniture, lamps, paintings, books, gold and silver jewelry, Greek and Russian icons and many more one of a kind items! Dimitrios was an expert in Greek and Russian icons as well as jewelry. He traveled to many countries to buy merchandise and had an extensive knowledge of many things. He always said, "if you can't find it here, you won't find it anywhere."

At Fountain Hills Antiques & Jewelry you will always find sales throughout the store and they even offer reduced pricing on items that are not on sale. To honor each year they have been part of the community, Fountain Hills Antiques invites you to enjoy 20%-50% OFF select merchandise throughout the store. They look forward to helping you discover something special that will last forever.

Today, Fountain Hills Antiques is still very much a family owned business. Both Eleni and her son, Dimitrios Jr. work in the store full-time and daughter, Angela Syregelas and son, Alexander manage the back-end operations. They welcome all ages to come visit, connect with history and shop the most one of a kind treasures. The family would like to thank its customers, friends and community members who have supported them and made these 20 years meaningful and successful.

As Fountain Hills Antiques & Jewelry enters its third decade, its mission remains the same: to offer pieces that inspire wonder, joy and connection. The store looks ahead with plans to: introduce a small online presence for some of the unique items, continue to fulfill new inventory and as always, to continue to bring beautifully crafted and historically rich items to old and new customers.

Fountain Hills Antiques & Jewelry is located at 13233 N. LaMontana Drive in Fountain Hills and is open Monday-Saturday 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. or by appointment. For more information call 480-836-0707.

Farewell from The Antique Plaza

Greg Farr

After more than three decades in the heart of Arizona's antique community, The Antique Plaza will be closing its doors early 2026.

From our very first day, this shop has been more than a business — it's been a gathering place for collectors, dreamers, and friends who share a love for history.

At its heart was Greg — our founder, inspiration, and beloved brother. He was always quick with a story, a smile, or a bit of wisdom:

"A quick nickel is better than a slow dime."

"The time to buy it is when you see it."

Greg built more than a business — he built a community. To all who shared in his passion and helped make The Antique Plaza what it became, thank you.

As we close our doors, we do so with gratitude for the memories, the friendships, and the decades we shared together.

☀ Storewide Farewell Sale

Special discounts throughout the store as we prepare to close. Come find a treasure — and share a memory — before we say goodbye.

The dealers have extensive knowledge and expertise and will offer their best merchandise. As one of the best west coast shows of its kind, this event continues to grow year after year and has become well known as a must attend event. For the collecting world, this show puts its very best collectibles for the attendees.

Admission for 9:00 a.m. Early Bird is $20 and is good throughout the entire show. General admission is $5 and is good for both days. The show hours are 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and there will be food and drink vendors on site.

Celebrating 30 Years!

by Barb Stillman, Publisher

Anniversaries are a great way to reflect on the past, celebrate the current and look to the future. I have to admit the 30th Anniversary of The Antique Register kind of snuck up on us! We love publishing this magazine and sharing the wonderful shops and events and get caught up in the daily process. Over the many years, there have been many folks that contributed to the success of The Antique Register, from the wonderful advertisers, writers and of course our loyal readers. 30 years ago, the founder, Barbara Floyd, had a vision for what this magazine could be and we have continued to build and grow on that vision, publishing for almost 14 years now.

As the New Year approaches, and we look to the 31st year, we find ourselves anticipating what this new year will have in store, after all 30 years I a long time! Over the years there have been some businesses that have come and gone, but still many of the shops advertising in the paper have been a part for a majority of those years and they have their own long history.

You have heard the phrase “Shop Local” which started a number of years ago. It is more than a catch phrase to the businesses that are truly locally owned and operated. This catch phrase means so much to the shops and it’s an important reminder to all of us that nearly all the shops, events and services in this paper are small businesses owned by neighbors and friends. When you visit the advertising businesses, you may make a new friend or two along the way. We have the friendliest and most helpful shop owners and their staff!

We look forward to the New Year with optimism that 2026 will bring positive changes for all! A good New Year’s resolution would be to explore a “new to you” shop or mall, and The Antique Register is the perfect guide!

The next time you visit an advertising shop or event, please let them know that you appreciate them and thank them for providing this magazine! They love to hear from you and so do we. Drop us a note or email us at antique@barlomediamedia.com to share how you use The Antique Register to find new places to explore and don’t forget to enter our contest for a chance to win a gift certificate to your favorite advertiser! In honor of our 30th Anniversary, we are giving away a $30 gift certificate for each issue!

As we ring in the New Year, we hope that 2026 is a year of good health, happiness, prosperity and joy for all!

On behalf of all of us at The Antique Register,

Barb
