Those Were The Days!

Advertising in Song

by Jay Mark

In this day and age of instant communication, radio & TV, internet, social media and the like, it is a challenge to think back to a time when none of these existed. Radio, the first mass communication medium didn't emerge until the 2nd quarter of the 20th century.

Magazines and newspapers were the primary source of news and information...albeit delayed.

The telephone, patented in 1876, allowed person-to-person communication. A year later, Thomas Edison introduced the phonograph. For the first time people could hear recordings of voices and music.

Until then, music and performances could only be heard live. That's why the piano was the most popular instrument in the American home. It was the family's entertainment medium. To keep up with the latest songs and music, the sheet music industry exploded in the 19th century. The industry changed from simple covers to colorful, eye-catching covers to lure customers into making a purchase.

Sheet music (initially called "music sheets") in itself offered opportunities to publish historic classical scores and other instrumental music. But the medium soon opened up to song sheets that could tell stories of love and romance, humorous experiences, travels and news events like in "The Wreck of the Titanic." Anything a composer could come up with.

As aviation emerged, it was quickly covered in sheet music – Come Josephine in My Flying Machine, Come Take A Trip In My Airship and Lucky Lindy amongst countless others.

All this got me wondering what mediums did companies use to promote their products in the late 19th and early 20th centuries? It turned out sheet music was an ideal way for advertisers to get their messages and products out to the masses.

With the emergence of the automobile, dozens of promotional pieces were published. Songs like In My Merry Oldsmobile, My Little Ford Rambled Along, Take Me on a Buick Honeymoon. Countless other manufacturers whose life spans were pretty short are immortalized in sheet music. The jitney Bus, Mack's Swell Car Was A Maxwell and A Jolly Ride in a Glide.

Food and beverage products were another area in which themed sheet music proliferated. Songs like Heinz is Pickled Again, Under the Anheuser Bush, Rum and Coca Cola, I'm Just Wild About Animal Crackers. Well, you get the idea.

The beauty of old sheet music is that because of a plethora of subjects and themes, there is virtually nothing that one can't find of interest. I've found that amongst the many things I collect, I probably have more sheet music than any other thing. Pick the subject and there are enough to satisfy a collector's desire to accumulate. Some of my areas of interest include Rags, railroads, aviation, Black Americana, jazz, sports, musical instruments, songs about cities and states, just to name a few.

But for me, I am most interested in advertising sheet music. Not only for their colorful, imaginative covers, but how they address their products in lyrics. My holy grail is a piece of music called "Signs We See As We Pass Along." Published in 1904, it is an early critique of the pervasiveness of advertising. A train passing through a tranquil countryside assaults passengers with 40 products on billboards, signs and painted barn sides.

For more information about that intriguing song, see my article in the May-June 2017 Antique Register.

The great thing about sheet music collecting is that they don't have to be just stored in albums. In fact, they serve as ideal framed decor. They are easy to display. And they are frequent conversation starters.

A Good Read: Few books have been published of late about the history of sheet music. Some information can be gained from "Old Sheet Music: A pictorial history" by Marian Klamkin (1975); "Victorian Sheet Music Covers" by Ronald Pearsall (1972); "Rare 19th Century Large Music Sheets," and "The Sheet Music Reference and Price Guide" (1992).

Value: The beauty of collecting sheet music is there is something for everyone. Many pieces are valued at under $5. Others can be purchased for less than $25. For some of the most desirable pieces such as those mentioned in this article can go far north of $100. Remember, condition is one of the most significant factors in evaluating the value of sheet music.

Start collecting sheet music, and people will "sing" praise to your unique eye and ear.

Virtually an antique himself, or maybe a "collectible," Jay Mark, has more than a half-century experience in the antiques business. He owns Those Were The Days!, an online specialty bookstore. A recognized historian, he also teaches, lectures and writes about antiques and history. Reach him at jaymarkhistorian@gmail.com.

27th Annual Great Southwestern Antique Show July 31-Aug 2nd in Albuquerque, NM

The 27th Annual Great Southwestern Antique Show is considered by many to be one of America's favorite antique shows! Offering antique excellence for 27 years and the show has donated over $500,000 to charities through endowments and local non-profits, to provide for the enrichment of the Arts, Culture and Education of the local community.

Located at Lujan Center, Expo New Mexico, at 300 San Pedro Blvd, SE in Albuquerque, New Mexico, the show features exhibitors from across the United States (and Canada too), bringing their unique vintage and antique finds. The Charity Early Buying Preview will open Friday, July 31st, with 100% of proceeds going to New Mexico PBS educational and arts programming. The show general admission opens Saturday, August 1st from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and continues on Sunday, August 2nd from 10:00 a.m. to 4 pm.

There's a reason why so many people maintained that this is their favorite show in the United States. You can shop for unique treasures, beautiful and rare objects from other countries and cultures, with an emphasis on Native American, Western and Southwest objects and art. Also offered for sale will be tribal and ethnographic art, vintage jewelry, clothing, accessories, Fine Art, Mexican art, rare books, military items and ephemera. It's exciting to see what exhibitors will bring. It's not just shopping, it's fun, educational and entertaining!

Charity Sneak Preview: Friday, July 31st

1pm to 6pm - $100 Early Buyer Preview entry

11am to 6pm - $250 VIP Preview entry

General Show Admission: $12 per day or $20 for 2 day pass.

Antique Gatherings Too Opens on July 1st

by Barb Stillman, Publisher

Antique Gatherings, a mainstay in Phoenix for over thirty-four years, has opened a second location, Antique Gatherings Too on Indian School Road. This location is not far from their original store where they were established for 30 plus years, so they feel reconnected to the "old neighborhood" again and look forward to welcoming customers to both locations.

Owner Amanda Wilson and the dealers have been busy preparing the new store. Several long time dealers have created new spaces in this store as well as some fresh new faces bringing new merchandise making Antique Gatherings Too inviting to explore.

There is a huge range of offerings for sale that suit every taste and budget. Items include antique furniture, clocks, fine art, estate and fine Jewelry, decorative Items, sculptures and bronzes, Oriental rugs, glass and porcelain, silver, Mid-Century Modern, taxidermy, industrial, vintage clothing and accessories, linens, as well as many other Antique, Vintage and Collectible items.

Keeping with tradition, Antique Gatherings will hold its semi-annual July Storewide Sale at the 32nd Street location. Shoppers

Boomtown Invitational Antique, Retro and Vintage Show in Verdi, NV, Aug 21st-23rd, 2026

Boomtown Invitational Antique Show will return to Boomtown Casino Event Center on August 21st, 22nd and 23rd. The area's finest Antiques Retro and Vintage Show will be on Friday and Saturday from 10am to 5pm and Sunday from 10am to 4pm. Admission is $6 with free return and free parking all weekend. The Boomtown Hotel and Casino is located at 2100 Boomtown Garson Road, Verdi, NV just a short drive from Reno.

Originally founded in 1974 by Walter Larsen and Associates, the Truckee Boosters Benefit Antiques Show was created to raise money for Truckee High School scholarship, academic and sports programs. Over the decades, the event earned a loyal following among local collectors, antique enthusiasts and summer residents who returned year after year in search of exceptional treasures and unique finds.

In 2008, the show promotion was turned over to Twin Bridges Antique Productions under the direction of Carole Berry, who has now retired and graciously passed the torch to Dan and Paula Clements owners of Tanner's Marketplace. Tanner's Marketplace is proud to continue the long-standing tradition of presenting one of the region's finest antiques and vintage events.

Because of the show's outstanding reputation and loyal customer base, dealers have traveled from across the country including Idaho, Missouri, Nebraska, Oregon, Nevada, Tennessee, Utah and Washington to participate in the event. Merchandise has included turn-of-the-century oak and walnut furniture, lighting, kitchen and country primitives, Victorian art glass, American art pottery, sterling silver, jewelry, watches, fine porcelain and china, toys, dolls, folk art, and ephemera such as prints, maps, and paper collectibles.

Slot machines and gambling memorabilia also became especially popular due to the show's proximity to Nevada casinos.

Celebrity visitors have occasionally appeared as well, including the late Leonard Nimoy, beloved for his role as Spock on the television series Star Trek. One memorable story came from veteran antiques dealer Lenore Fultz of Trail's End Antiques in Tennessee. During the 2007 show, Nimoy and his son stopped to purchase a set of china from her booth. Lenore later admitted she had no idea who he was. Because she did not accept credit cards, Mr. Nimoy borrowed $100 from someone at the show for a deposit and returned the next morning with cash in hand to complete the purchase.

The year 2023 marked the final chapter for the Truckee High School location. Rising operational costs made it no longer economically feasible to continue hosting the show there. A search began for a new venue close enough to Truckee to remain convenient for longtime customers and friends of the show.

That search led to Boomtown Casino Hotel, located just down can expect the same fun and exciting shopping experience as in past years. Join Antique Gatherings on July 11th to celebrate the 4th Anniversary! And be sure to join us at our new location for a soft opening starting July 1st!

With a reputation for being one of the finest antique stores in Arizona, Antique Gatherings and now Antique Gatherings Too has made the transition of adding the second new location with the expected style and grace. The daunting challenges associated with having two stores is a wonderful opportunity for Amanda and the staff. In addition to many other benefits, they are even more convenient for shoppers in Phoenix and the surrounding cities—plus the new store is just a few minutes from their original site.

Amanda said, "It has been quite a task, but with the help of many friends and support from our loyal customers, the new location is ready to welcome everyone. We are very grateful!"

Antique Gatherings Too is located at 2230 E Indian School Road, Phoenix and Antique Gatherings is at 10615 N 32nd Street, Phoenix, just off the 51 Freeway and Shea Blvd. Store hours are Monday to Saturday 10:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and Sunday from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Find more information at www.antiquegatherings.com, follow on Facebook and Instagram or call 602-956-8203.
